

PROPHECY GIVEN BY MIKE PUSEY Sunday November 12th 2006

'I AM calling men – men who are willing to offer themselves unreservedly to Me – to be bonded together – then equipped by My Spirit – men who will be prepared to go in My Name to do My Will.

I am calling older men – men mature in life – to be a part of a 'band of brothers' – who will encourage and be an example before those who are younger – teaching them with humility and sensitivity. Older men who will also will be prepared to learn new lessons from those who are younger and as yet inexperienced but who are 'hearing from Me'.

I am calling younger men – who are as yet inexperienced and untried – who will have a good attitude to those who are older – to regard them as 'spiritual fathers' but also bond with them as 'brothers' in the work that is to be done in My Name.

I am looking for older and younger men of obedience and faith – to become men of passion for the interests of the Kingdom – men to whom My Kingdom will be first priority.

I am looking for men who will not compete with one another but who will complement one another, for I am forming an army which is made up of different giftings and functions which separately cannot achieve my purposes, but who together will do that for My Glory in the earth.

Who then will offer themselves freely and unreservedly to Me – who will present themselves afresh – for this 'New Day' – a 'New Beginning' – a 'New Challenge' and a 'New Opportunity' to be My Men, says the Lord'.
